

T.M. Opener Attracted 300 Voters

The first session of Cohasset's Annual Town Meeting began an hour late, when the 200 voters needed for a quorum finally made their way to the High School gymnasium. By the end of the day, after 24 of 78 articles had been considered, hand counts indicated the attendance of almost 300 residents.

Moderator David Place announced the decision of town officials to recess the Town Meeting after town elections in order to keep the meeting open to reconsider money articles. Because the tax cap issue has not been decided by the legislature yet, Place said, it behooved voters to vote unanimously, or at least with a two-thirds majority on money articles, to overrule possible state dictates.

Furthermore, Selectman Arthur Clark noted, Police and Fire Departments collective bargaining agreements, up for consideration in Articles 42 and 43, haven't been decided yet. The agreements require acceptance by the town within 30 days of their signing; a recess of the annual Town Meeting would allow future consideration of these articles, as well, rather than completing this business at a Special Town Meeting which would require a new warrant.

At the close of Saturday's session, Selectman Mary Jeanette Murray, gave voters notice that a motion for reconsideration of Articles 15 and 17 at the meeting's recess. These articles didn't pass with a two-thirds vote, and may, therefore, be subject to cap limits.

Big Crowd At Pinewood Derby

It wasn't the Indianapolis 500 but excitement and tensions were just as strong when the annual Four Harbors' Pinewood Derby race-off took place last Friday evening at the Jenkins School in Scituate.

Sixty-four cubs registered from nine packs in the district which comprises the towns of Scituate, Hingham, Cohasset, and Hull. Packs represented were: from Scituate, Packs 69, 122, 128, and 134; from Cohasset, Pack 38; from Hingham, Packs 4 and 27; and from Hull, Packs 21 and 412.

Bruce Marshman of Scituate was chairman of the event and he and his assistants ran a double elimination race to determine the three top winners in the eight, nine and 10 year old age categories.

This is the fifth year Marshman and his assistants, Bruce Bent, Dick Barke, Carla and Mike Harden, have run the annual event.

The top three winners in each age group will go on to compete against the top three winners from the other eight districts in the Old Colony Boy Scout Council, on Sunday, April 29, at 4:30 p.m. at Camp

Child in Plymouth. A scout hike-a-thon will also be held that day and winners must be present themselves to race their hand made wooden cars.

Winners were:

Eight year olds — First place: Chris Richard of Pack 38 of Cohasset; Second place: Sean Kerans of Pack 134 of Scituate; Third place: David Terry of Pack 134 of Scituate.

Nine year olds — First place: Skip Mills of Pack 69 of Scituate; Second place: William Harden of Pack 128 of Scituate; Third place: Jay McHugh of Pack 134 of Scituate.

Ten year olds — First place: Larry Desmond of Pack 38 of Cohasset; Second place: Doug Bent of Pack 128 of Scituate; and Third place: Tim Carr of Pack 27 of Hingham.

Larry Desmond's finely hewed car topped the other two first place cars to grab the over-all best car trophy.

The winners received ribbons and medals and all cubs
